Where Grand Adventure Begins

URNS OUT EVERYONE SEES

Grand Teton National Park is the ideal setting for bringing adventures to life. In all of us there is a desire to be surprised and awed by nature – an explorer. As the rugged Tetons rise to peaks of over 13,000 feet, the Snake River winds through the lush valley floor. A home for wildlife including bald eagles, bison, antelope, elk and moose. A place where stunning views lend to the enjoyment of activities like hiking, kayaking, horseback riding, and wild & scenic rafting. A haven for those seeking an unforgettable experience.

Explore the possibilities of an adventure in the Tetons and plan accordingly, as you will want to stay longer than anticipated.

Open mid-May through early-October

Always an open invitation, Grand Teton Lodge Company has welcomed summer guests for more than 50 years. Whether your adventure leads you to undiscovered territory in Grand Teton National Park, a day in nearby Yellowstone National Park, or the Town of Jackson, come home to exceptional service and relaxing accommodations. Choose from the historic Jackson Lake Lodge, or the rustically elegant Jenny Lake Lodge. If you're looking for the perfect family camping adventure, Colter Bay Village provides a choice of log cabins, tent cabins, and an RV park, or choose from one of three campgrounds located throughout the park.

Full-Service Resort*

Jackson Lake Lodge

Overlooking Jackson Lake, with unobstructed views of the Tetons, is Jackson Lake Lodge. Enjoy all the amenities of this full-service resort in the heart of Grand Teton National Park.

Within the lodge, discover an inviting setting. Here, as you ascend the staircase to the lobby, sixty-foot high picture windows reveal dramatic mountain scenery in stunning closeness, unlike any other location in the valley. The lobby is furnished with couches and warm fireplaces that beckon between adventures, complete with works of art from painters such as Carl Roters, Charles Banks Wilson and Carl Rungius.

The spirit of Wyoming hospitality is embodied in each room and cottage, comfortably designed in rich colors and regional décor. Upgrade your accommodations to a room with a view or patio to enhance your stay.

Our dining options offer an incredible selection. Indulge in Rocky Mountain specialties that rival the wall-to-wall picture windows and stunning Teton views in the Mural Dining Room. Relax in the Blue Heron Lounge, featuring live entertainment and outdoor seating, awarded the best “watering hole” in a National Park. A more casual atmosphere is found in the Pioneer Grill, providing old-fashioned counter service and soda fountain specialties.

Spend the afternoon swimming in the heated outdoor pool or browsing several gift and apparel boutiques. When you are ready to explore, visit the Activity Desk to schedule guided horseback riding, scenic lake cruises and river rafting trips, bus tours, and get recommendations for day hikes.

Jenny Lake Lodge

The rustic elegance of Jenny Lake Lodge makes it a memorable place. Located at the base of the towering Tetons, and bounded by the pristine waters of Jenny and String Lakes, this cozy cabin retreat is a favorite of guests looking for a quiet mountain vacation or romantic getaway.

In addition to its AAA Four Diamond rating, Jenny Lake Lodge has been recognized by Travel + Leisure and Condé Nast Traveler for outstanding facilities and service.

The main lodge is surrounded by 37 charming cabins—each named after a native wildflower and secluded in quiet forest glades. The comfortable interiors are inviting, with the warmth of cozy handmade quilts and down comforters.

The Dining Room provides an intimate setting not to be missed.

After a day hiking, horseback riding, bicycling, or exploring the nearby town of Jackson, relax on your private porch before heading to dinner.

Renowned for its rustic elegance and award-winning cuisine, The Dining Room at Jenny Lake Lodge is a AAA Four-Diamond dining destination, and features a nightly rotating five-course prix fixe that justifies its place among the world's finest restaurants.

Recognized by Travel + Leisure and Condé Nast Traveler.

Colter Bay Village

Located on the shores of Jackson Lake and offering a range of accommodations, Colter Bay Village is ideal for family vacationers looking for an authentic National Park adventure.

Colter Bay Log Cabins

Nestled in a forest near the pristine waters of Jackson Lake, each of these cozy log cabins are unique. Many are original settlers' cabins dating back as far as the 1890's. Sleeping from two to ten guests, most cabins have a complete bath with shower.

Colter Bay RV Park

Our fully equipped RV Park includes 112 trailer spaces, each with sewer, electric and water connections. Most sites are pull-through, located under the shade of pine trees. All include picnic tables.

Colter Bay Tent Cabins

Our Tent Village offers the enjoyment of camping under the stars along with deluxe amenities. The spacious canvas and log cabins include an outdoor grill, wood-burning stove, bunk beds and a picnic table. Community restrooms are provided.

Camping in the Park

For those seeking a more adventurous vacation, we offer several campgrounds to choose from. Jenny Lake, Colter Bay and Gros Ventre campgrounds are all located within Grand Teton National Park. Lake and river locations available with bathroom facilities and picnic tables. Many sites have Teton views.

Amenities

Colter Bay Village provides a wide range of amenities, including a grocery store, service station, launderette, showers and gift and apparel shops. There is also a full service marina, offering kayaks, canoes and motorboats that can be rented by the hour.

Colter Bay Dining

Dine at the John Colter Cafe Court, offering made-to-order pizzas, subs and salads. Or visit the Ranch House Restaurant, serving hearty family-style meals that capture the Western spirit of the local homesteaders who settled this area. The Ranch House also offers a breakfast buffet, or enjoy a casual lunch at the bar.

Activities in the Tetons

Whether seeking a challenge or relaxing in the beauty of your surroundings, there are more ways to explore than there is room to mention. So here are a few of the highlights.

On The River

Wild and Scenic Rafting:

Floating on the Snake River affords a truly unique perspective for viewing the park. On this wild and scenic raft trip, our guides will share the history of the valley, noting the sites and the wildlife along the way.

Fly-Fishing: Grand Teton National Park and nearby Yellowstone are known for some of the most epic fly-fishing waters. The challenging Snake River winds throughout the park, attracting anglers from around the world.

On The Lake

Jackson Lake Cruises: Narrated scenic cruises along the waters of this glacial lake are fun for everyone. Breakfast and dinner cruises to Elk Island are available as well.

Boat Rentals: Explore Jackson Lake by canoe, motorboat or kayak for fishing or a scenic adventure.

Swimming: Always a favorite for our family guests, wade on the shores or dive in for a nice cool swim in one of the many lakes. A heated pool is also available at Jackson Lake Lodge for guests of all our lodges.

In the Meadows

Horseback Riding and Wagon Rides:

Guided horseback and wagon rides are a spectacular way to view Grand Teton National Park. Trail rides are one or two hours breakfast and dinner rides also available.

Hiking: Exploring on your own is a popular activity in the park. Feel free to ask our staff for a recommendation, then pack a lunch, plenty of water, and discover the wildflowers, wildlife and solitude that bring our guests back year after year.

On The Road

Biking: Grand Teton National Park gives you the opportunity to actively explore, or keep the pace slow to enjoy the fresh air.

Scenic Park Bus Tours: Be introduced to the wonders of the area, rich with history, on a narrated bus tour. We offer trips through both Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Parks.

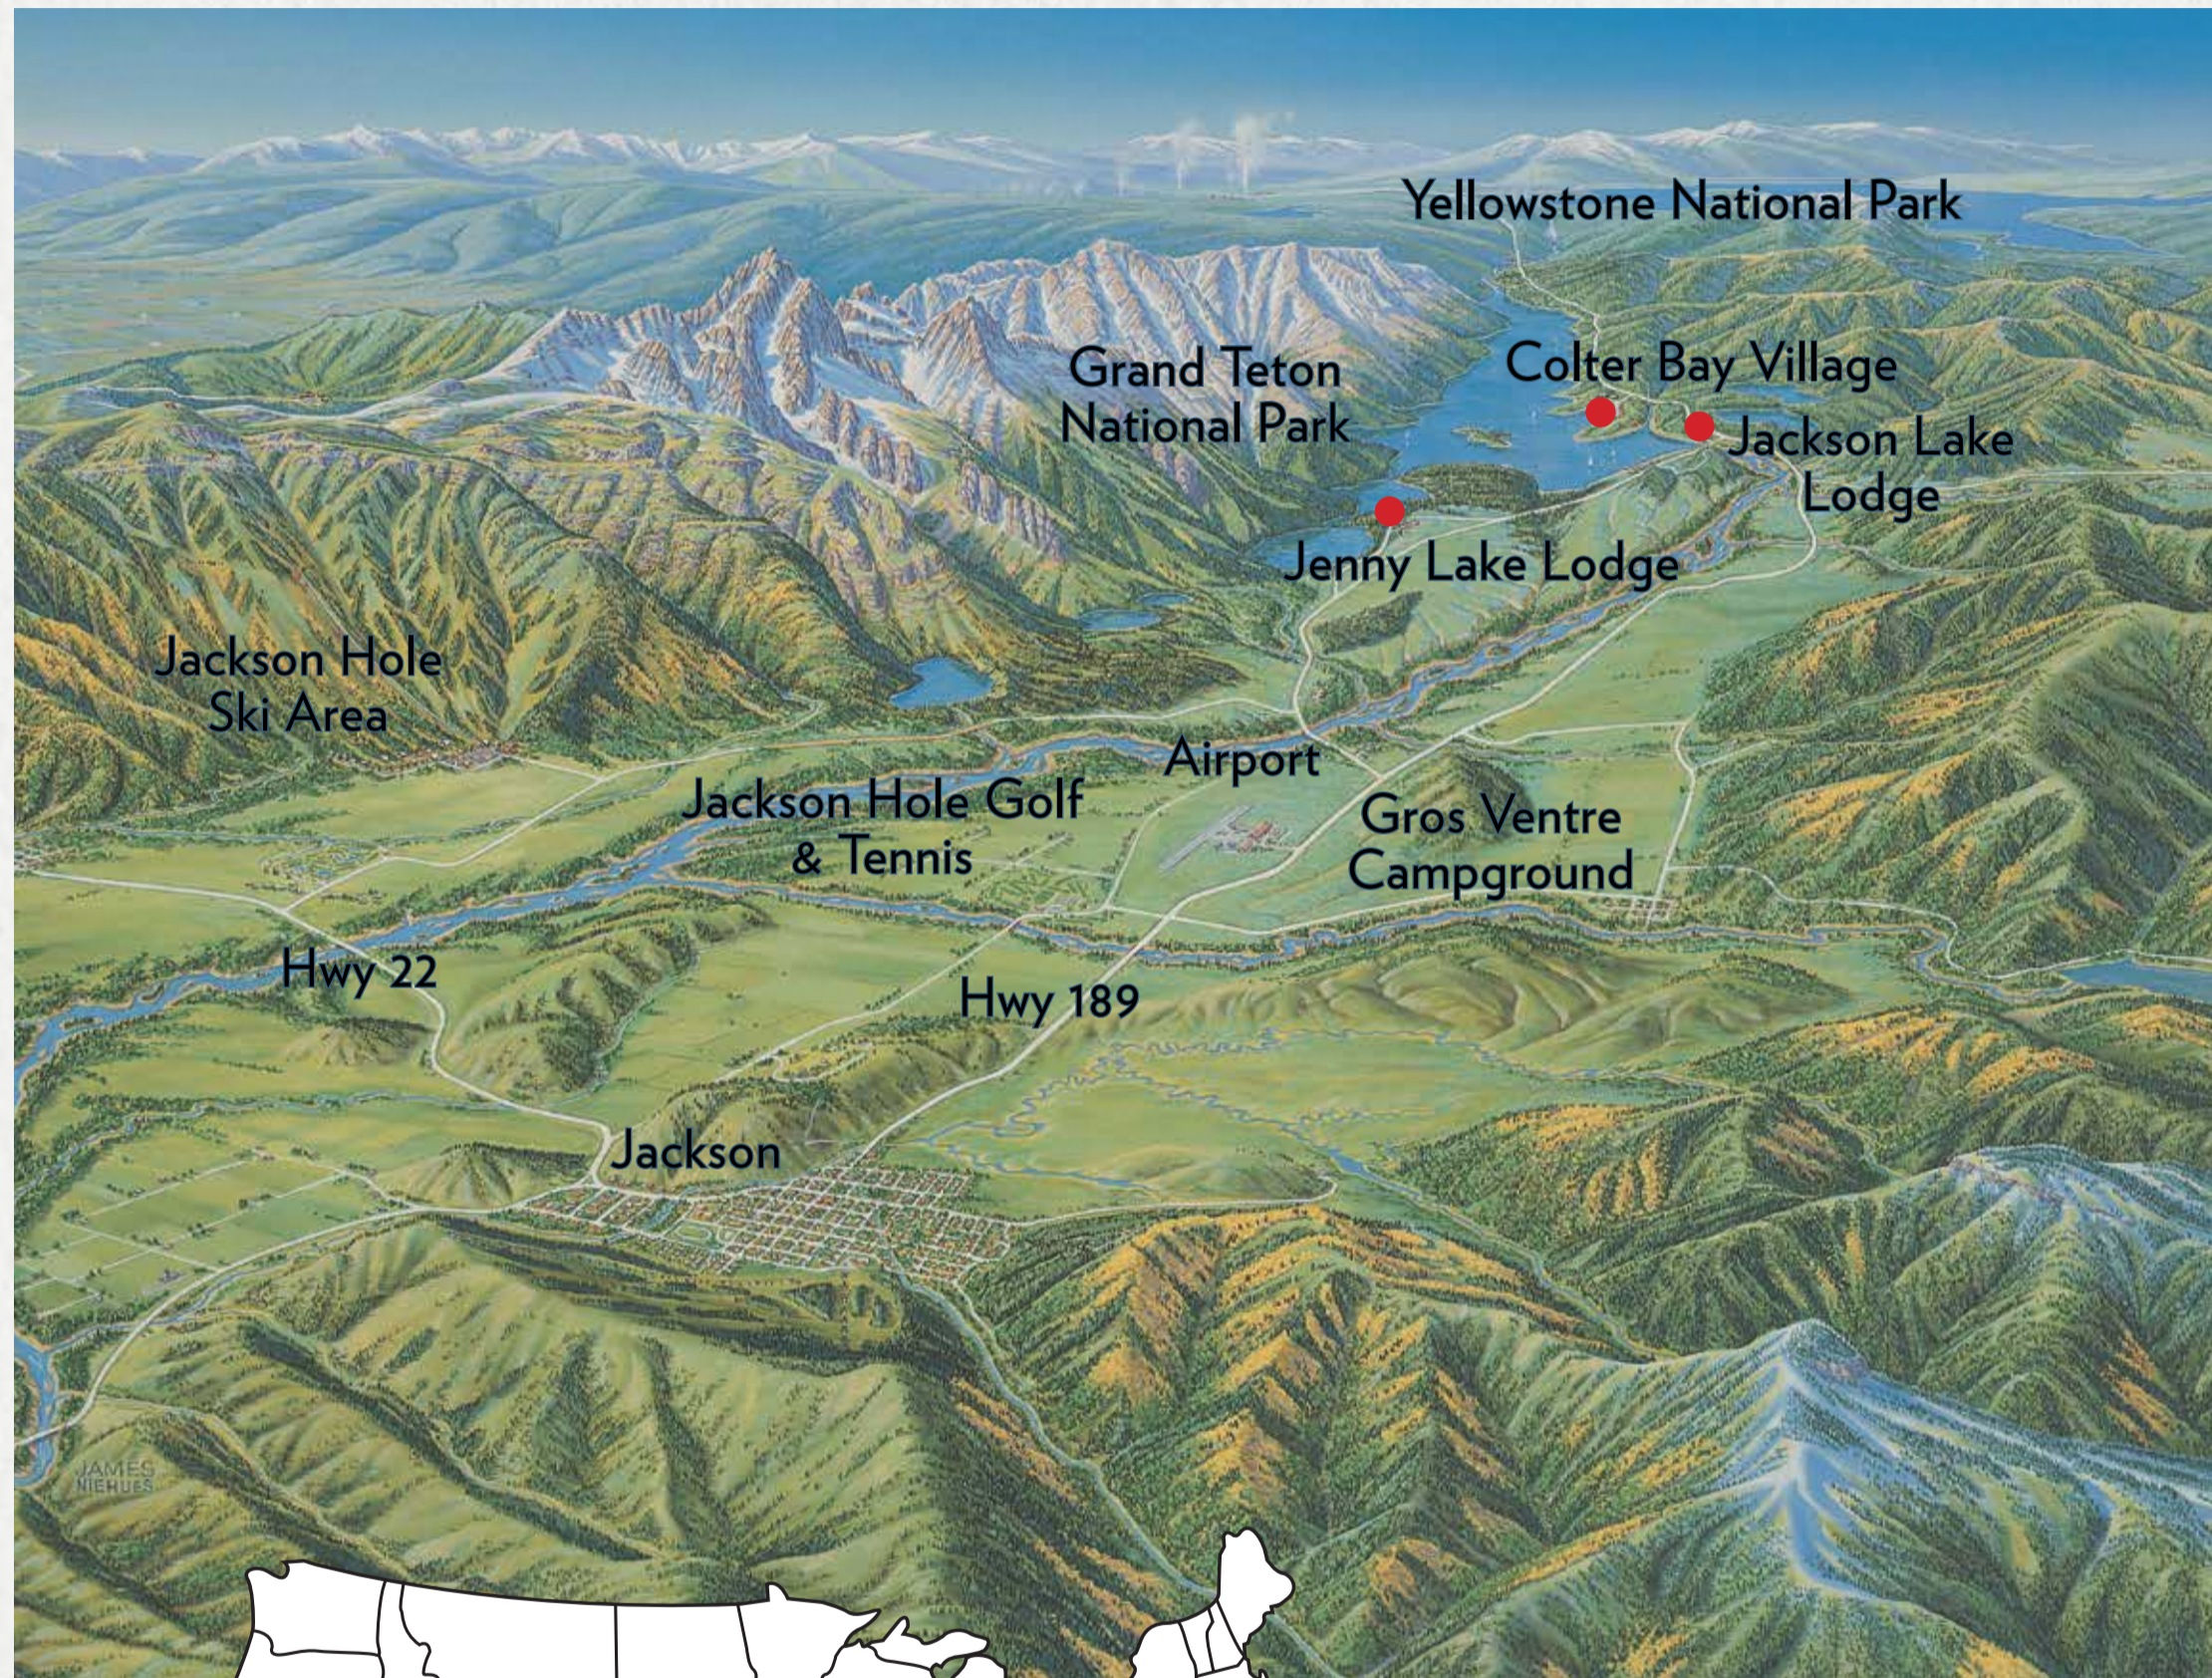

Grand Teton Lodge Company offers a wide range of services, from seasoned guides to trail maps and tips for the outdoors. Stop by one of our Activities Desks, located at most of our lodges, or the front desk and allow our staff to acquaint you with the wonders of the area.
